

Honour Awards Term 1 Week 11

Class	Student Name
Rec AH	Oliver Hogben: Oliver has had an amazing start to Reception, already becoming a role model in our classroom. Oli is always polite and respectful to both staff and students. He uses his manners and encourages others to do so too, making him a great leader in our class. Oli is a brilliant friend, helping his classmates with both their learning and everyday tasks like packing and unpacking their bags. Oli also makes sure to include any peers that seem sad or lonely. In his learning, Oliver challenges himself without being asked and has been an amazing growth in his understanding because of this. Keep up the amazing work, Oliver.
Year 2 GF	Emily Young: Emily is a highly organised and conscientious learner who takes great pride in her work, always presenting it neatly and to a high standard. She approaches every task with persistence and a positive outlook, embracing challenges with resilience and determination. As a natural leader, she contributes her ideas with confidence and ensures all learners feel included and valued. Emily shows respect for those around her, fostering a supportive and encouraging classroom environment. She takes responsibility for her own learning, setting herself up for success by showing initiative both inside and outside the classroom.
Year 3 LN	Indi Hitch – Indi is a highly organised and conscientious student who ensures she sets herself up for success each day. She displays a love for learning, consistently maintaining focus and attention during learning times and striving to always produce work to a high standard. She has a kind and caring nature demonstrating respect to her classmates and teachers. Indi enjoys joining in class discussions sharing her ideas with confidence. She takes great pride in her work and should be proud of her efforts this term. Congratulations Indi on a great start to Year 3!
Year 4/5 LS	Luka Salopek- Luka is a student who consistently embodies respect and a deep commitment to learning. His dedication to his learning is evident in everything he does, always striving for excellence. Beyond academics, he treats everyone with kindness and respect, creating a positive environment for his peers and teachers alike. He regularly contributes to class discussions, with his confidence developing significantly through putting himself out of his comfort zone. Luka demonstrates a growth mindset and should be proud of the way he has committed to his learning and shown exemplary character this term. Congratulations Luka, keep it up!
Year 6 ER	Violet Wood – This student is one of the hardest working members in Year 6. She demonstrates persistence as she refuses to give up. She never has an unkind word to say to anyone and has really shined in her leadership activities. As House Captain for Burke and an excellent role model to her Reception buddy you can learn from this student how to step up. She is always willing to sell ice-blocks without complaint and umpire when necessary. You can see the confidence within her continually growing as she steps out of her comfort zone. There is no doubt that this exceptional student deserves this award – what a success she is! Congratulations Violet Wood.
Year 7 KM	Olive Hombsch- Olive is a quietly confident student, who has a great sense of humour. The number of bags she takes down to the Valleys most nights reflect her work ethic and the careful balancing of her sport and academic efforts. She is working hard on developing her writing skills, using figurative language to deepen her storytelling. Olive takes on feedback maturely in order to better herself. We love her approach to learning and commend her on a fantastic start to Year 7.
Year 7 HW	Syd Mitchell - Syd consistently demonstrates a strong work ethic and a deep commitment to his learning. He stays focused and engaged in lessons, tackling challenges with confidence and persistence. Syd is always open to feedback and uses it to keep growing, showing resilience and a great attitude along the way. He takes pride in his work and is always looking for ways to improve, whether it's through class discussions, clarifying questions, or putting in extra effort with his homework. Amazing work Syd, these attributes are what make you a great role model for your peers.
Year 8 LC	Matilda Ryan - We have been super impressed with Matilda's attitude to learning this Term. She always demonstrates high levels of engagement through active listening and contributing her thoughts to the class. Matilda is self-motivated to complete her work independently, utilising resources made available to her, taking on feedback and taking pride in the quality of work she submits. She gets along with all her class members, allowing her to work collaboratively and effectively with all her peers. Keep it up Matilda, your dedication toward your studies has not gone unnoticed.
